HARRISBURG, PA

Congratulations

In the Senate, April 13, 2016

Whereas, The Senate of Pennsylvania takes great pride in recognizing those institutions which, through adherence to the highest standards of service, contribute in a meaningful way toward a better and more productive society; and

Whereas, The Muhlenberg College Office of Community Service and Civic Engagement is being honored with the Outstanding Service Award by the Allentown Arts Commission during its 28th Annual Allentown Arts Orator Awards ceremony, which is being held on May 10, 2016; and

Whereas, The Muhlenberg College Office of Community Service and Civic Engagement enrolls students, employees and local communities in partnerships intended to catalyze personal, institutional and community change. Through programs in literary, performing and visual arts, Muhlenberg College students engage regularly with local communities in creative activities. Youth work with students to achieve mutually generated goals, share stories and learn from one another. Programs both on campus and within local communities create shared spaces in which groups can connect through the arts. The Muhlenberg College Office of Community Service and Civic Engagement believes that all of our communities benefit when people are able to share their voices through creative expressions, and it has developed a strong reputation for the highest quality of service since its inception. By steady adherence to the principles of reliability and integrity, it has become a leader in the community and a model that is worthy of emulation.

Now therefore, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania congratulates the Muhlenberg College Office of Community Service and Civic Engagement upon its richly deserved recognition; extends warmest wishes for a future replete with ever-increasing success and service to the community;

And directs that a copy of this document, sponsored by Senators Patrick M. Browne, Lisa M. Boscola and Mario M. Scavullo, be transmitted to the Muhlenberg College Office of Community Service and Civic Engagement, 2400 Chew Street, Allentown, Pennsylvania.
